THE BOERS ROUTED.

Second Attack on Glencoe a Decided Defeat.

MANY BOERS SLAIN.

The British Drove the Boers Over the Plains Leaving More Than Three Hundred Killed and Wounded Besides Many Prisoners.

Glencoe Camp, Oct. 23.—An attack was made by the Boer forces under General Lucas Meyers on the British position on Sunday, which enabled the British forces to score another signal success. The Boer column was driven pell-mell over the plains, losing over 300 killed and wounded. In addition the British captured several hundred horses and made many prisoners, who are being well cared for. The Boer hospital has been taken under the wing of the British hospital corps, as the Boers had only a simple doctor with a primitive staff who was quite unable to cope with the wounded.

TWO SIGNAL VICTORIES.

It Shows the Superior Fighting Qualities of Trained Against Untrained.

London, Oct. 23.—British victories following each other in quick succession, though accompanied by heavy losses on the side of the victor, bear striking testimony to the valor of the vanquished Boers. They appear to have fallen victims to the very plan which they counted on to drive the British into the sea. They have been beaten in detail by a counter stroke carefully considered and brilliantly carried out in the face of courageous opposition, which has done much to increase British respect for the burghers, whose splendid valor and determination, it is universally admitted, has reached its highest level.

Fuller accounts of the battle at Elandslaagte, emphasize the splendid gallantry exhibited on both sides and the superiority of the British in pitched battle, although the Boers fought with the greatest tenacity to the last, only yielding when further fighting was hopeless.

The death of Gen. Viljoen is a severe blow to the burghers, and the death of General Kock and the capture of Gen. Pretorius will handicap further movement of this column.

According to advices from Durban, Natal, the Boers have entered Zululand, a large column advancing toward Meloth.

The best opinions do not credit the reports that the Boers are suing for peace, or that these will be likely to yield at present, though they think the Boers probably will retreat to their line of defense in the mountains passes at Laings Nek and Brakenberg, where they have blocked the passes with great boulders and masses of rock blown up on each side, and where, if they so desire, they will be able to hold out until the advance of Sir Redvers Buller through the Orange Free State should compel them to leave the Natal side to meet an invasion from the south.

Sensational rumors are designed by foreign powers inimical to British interests, meet with scant credence, though it is admitted that it is difficult to explain the immense forces on land which Great Britain is now mobilizing.

In Vienna it is reported that British naval movements are due to a rumor that Russia, with the assent of France, is about to acquire from Spain Ceuta or some other naval station on the African coast. Elsewhere it is stated that the movements of the French Mediterranean fleet in the neighborhood of Levant where it could easily be joined by the Russian Black Sea fleet via Straits of Dardanelles, has occasioned suspicion.

BRITISH VICTORIES.

Only Two Important Battles Fought in South African War.

Cape Town, Oct. 23.—Although the war between Great Britain and the Transvaal has only been in progress 16 days, there has been two battles where the Boer forces and the British have met face to face.

The first was at Glencoe, where the Boers attempted to take the place. In that fight 1899 British troops fought a force of Boers variously estimated at from 4000 to 9000 men.

The Boers were driven from their stand on a high hill with a loss of 300 killed and wounded. The British loss was at first placed at about 200, but was finally cut to 31 killed and 151 wounded.

The second battle took place Sunday at Elandslaagte where the British recaptured the place.

The Boers were strongly entrenched and fought with their wonted bravery. They seized every opportunity of coming into action and run to serve their guns whenever they could get a chance.

The British captured the Boer camp with tents, wagons, horses and also two guns. The Boer losses were considerable, including a number of wounded and unwounded prisoners. Among the former are General Jan Koch and Piet Joubert, nephew of Commandant General Joubert.

Later dispatches from the front say that the Boer losses at Elandslaagte were considerable and the British lost about 100 men killed and wounded.

A large number of Boers were captured.

Boer Officers Killed and Captured.

London, Oct. 23.—Official dispatches from Ladysmith, British headquarters at Natal, dated 10 p. m. Sunday, gives the following list of casualties among the prominent Boers at the battle of Elandslaagte:

General Viljoen, killed.
General Kock, wounded and captured and has since died.

General Kockson, killed.

Colonel Scjell, German officer commanding artillery, wounded and taken prisoner.

Commander Pretorius, wounded and a prisoner.

Several Boer standards were captured.

Reported Kruger Has Enough.

London, Oct. 23.—A special dispatch from Cape Town dated, Sunday, says advices have been received there from Pretoria which reports that President Kruger is now in favor of unconditional surrender. It is added that it is expected that the executive council will meet at once to discuss the advisability of such a step. The report, it is stated here, must be accepted with reserve.

British Order American Ammunition.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 23.—The British government has placed an immense order for ammunition with the Union Metallic Cartridge company of this city for use in the war in South Africa. It is unofficially declared that part of the order is for 5,000,000 shot shell, with as many more ball cartridges. When questioned as to the full extent of the order an official of the company replied that it was against the rules of the company to talk in relation to war orders. Preparations for the rush that the fulfillment of the order will entail have already been commenced.

Will Help Both.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 23.—The Russian Red Cross society has determined to offer help to both belligerents in South Africa. The Herald in making the announcement adds: "We preserve appearances with this dual proposal, but do not conceal our views." All papers have opened subscriptions for the volunteer corp, which is being well supported in private circles.

Attacked Troops on a Launch.

Manila, Oct. 23.—An American officer was killed and two men were wounded by the Filipinos in an attack on a launch with General Lawton's expedition in the Rio Chiquita, near San Isidro. The rebels fired volleys from the shore.

Boers Shelling Dundee.

Cape Town, Oct. 23.—A dispatch has just arrived announcing that the Boers are shelling Dundee, east of Glencoe, at long range, but that their fire is ineffective.

Ex-German Officer Captured.

Cape Town, Oct. 23.—Schiell, a former German officer, who was leading a section of the Boers in the engagement at Elandslaagte, was taken prisoner.

Reported Surrender.

Cape Town, Oct. 23.—It is rumored here that Barkley West, northwest of Kimberly, has been surrendered to the Boers without firing a shot.

Cape volunteers, it is reported, will be sent to relieve Kimberly.

General Kock's Death.

Cape Town, Oct. 23.—The Boer commander at the battle of Elandslaagte, General Jan H. Kock, who was taken prisoner, has died of his wounds.

Inscription Must Be Erased.

Topeka, Oct. 23.—General Funston has sent word to Topeka that he will not accept a $1000 sword presented him by the people of Kansas unless the inscription on the blade, "I Can Hold This Position Until My Regiment is Mustered Out" is removed. Funston was reported to have made this reply to his commanding officer in one of the engagements near Manila. He says he did not make such a reply, and will not accept a sword containing such an inscription.

Castro Enters Caracas.

Caracas, Oct. 23.—General Cipriano Castro, the insurgent commander during the recent revolution, has entered this city. A warm reception was accorded him. There was no trouble when Castro arrived and there is no fear of renewed fighting as everybody wants peace without retaliation.

Slain at a Dance.

Fredericktown, Mo., Oct. 23.—At a dance in the Leatherwood neighborhood about 15 miles south of here, Andrew Pippin was killed by a shot fired by some unknown person. Pippin recently returned from Nicaragua, where he had charge of a mahogany lumber camp.

TEXAS AND FACTORIES.

The proposition of dotting Texas with factories is one of the most important now before our people. The raw material is here in abundance, and of all kinds; the labor necessary to operate factories of every description can be obtained; there are thousands and thousands of favored localities, and the only thing needed seems to be the necessary capital, coupled with a determination to make a beginning. It is suggested by those in position to know, that there is plenty of money in Texas. However, more or less of whatever idle money there may be held in the banks by depositors has heretofore sought other channels of investment, especially in loans secured by real estate. The opinion prevails, however, that owing to improved conditions, which enable those in debt to pay, hence avoiding the renewal of loans, as also the lessened desire or necessity of borrowing money heretofore existing, make it possible that idle capital will seek home field of employment other than to be put out at interest. This is one of the most hopeful signs of the times, and encourages the belief that ere long the era of factory building will begin in good earnest. Indeed, in some communities there are already evidences of progress, that means a development of the incomparable resources and opportunities that are presented in almost every locality.

There is no economy in producing the raw material and shipping it to other states for manufacture and then buying the manufactured product, paying freight and insurance both ways, and a profit to outside manufacturers. That is what keeps us poor. If our products were manufactured here we not only would save all these items of expense, but secure the profit in manufacturing, to be added yearly to our wealth as a people, and thus better the conditions of all classes of our people, and make the state of Texas greater a thousand fold than she is today. It is to be hoped that our business men and capitalists will co-operate and begin the good work.—Texas Trade Review.

Ex-Minister Hubbard made some telling arguments in favor of the Nicaragua canal. He said, for example, that "the cost of the Nicaragua canal is estimated at $135,000,000 of gold. The Suez canal cost $250,000,000, and yet, though hundreds of millions of bonds rest upon it, that highway within six months and fifteen days of every year from the vast tonnage dues and tolls of the world's commerce pays the interest and fixed charges on the stupendous work, leaving the earnings of the remaining five months to be a net dividend among its British owners."

If you want to buy a home or buy land for speculation, or for investment, call on Hudson & Nall.

NAVIGATE THE BRAZOS

There Will be Big Money in It To Everybody.

The Brazos Navigation Convention meet on Thursday of this week, at Brenham. This is the most important question now before the people of this section of Texas. Bryan has a large delegation appointed to attend, and Hon. S. R. Henderson is anxious to have everybody who can do so, to go with him over there.

The navigation of the Brazos river is perfectly feasible and practicable. This writer has often heard the idea of such navigation ridiculed, but it is usually done by people who are not conversant with the subject. Skilled engineers have examined the stream more than once and pronounced the navigation of the stream a perfectly feasible and practicable undertaking. It would cost a large sum of money, about two million dollars being the estimate to carry the head of navigation by light draft boats as far as Waco. But larger sums are being expended by the general government to open up streams in other parts of the United States, where the conditions are not more favorable, and where the benefits to be derived by the people are not larger than in this case. In fact, it would be hard to conceive of a project that would redound more to the benefit of the people than this one; or a case in which so large a number of people are entitled, under the prevailing policy of the general government, to such a work of internal improvement.

The navigation of the Brazos would mean, not only low freights by water for the thousands and tens of thousands of people whose commerce would be tributary to this important stream, but it would also mean cheaper rates by rail. Houston has railroad freight rates based upon the navigation of her bayou; and while but little of her commerce is carried by water, the benefits to her on account of the possibility of bayou navigation are just as great as if the freight was all hauled in that way, and even greater.

Bryan is directly interested, and should do her part. Our congressmen and U. S. senators can do much for us in the way of getting an appropriation, if our people will do the proper thing to hold up their hands. We should show an overwhelming sentiment in demand of the enterprise, and lay our petitions before congress. The time to start the work is this week at Brenham.

Let us have a good delegation at the convention; or, at the very least, let us be represented by some kind of a delegation, even if it is a small one.

A Waco paper says: "In the Court of United States Commissioner John H. Finks complaint was filed against A. L. C. Hurst, charging him with sending first-class matter through the postoffice concealed in second-class matter. It is specified in the complaint that the defendant sent letters enclosed in circulars which is an offense against the postoffice regulations. Deputy United States Marshal Black arrested the defendant, who gave bail to appear next Saturday before the commissioners for a preliminary hearing."

ARMY PROMOTIONS.

Bates, Lawton and Funston Will Be Made Brigadier Generals.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Many important military appointments have been decided upon. They include Brigadier General John C. Bates volunteers and colonel of the Second infantry, regular army, to be major general of volunteers to fill the original vacancy caused by the increase in the enlisted force.

Major General H. W. Lawton, United States volunteers and colonel in the inspector general's department, regular army, to be brigadier general of the army, vice Burke, retired.

Brigadier General Frederick Funston, United States volunteers, to be retained as brigadier general of volunteers, to fill the original vacancy caused by the increase in the enlisted force.

General Funston has already received notification of his intended reappointment and has accepted. He will receive orders at once directing him to report to Major General Otis for assignment to a brigade command. His retention in the service has been made possible by the increase in the number of enlisted men, the law allowing a brigadier general for each 4000 men.

There are at present 22 brigadier generals, including General Funston, and as the present force comprises about 96,000 men, the president still has the appointment of two additional brigade commanders.

Generals Lawton and Bates will receive notice of their promotion within a few days. The appointment of Brigadier General Bates to be major general, like that of Funston, is made possible by the increase in the enlisted force. One major general is allowed to each 12,000 men. There are now only seven major generals to 96,000 men, thus leaving one vacancy.

General Bates is at present in the Philippines. He has been in several important engagements there and conducted successfully the diplomatic negotiations with the Sulu chiefs. He has a good civil war record, and served with distinction at Santiago and Porto Rico during the Spanish war. He is considered one of the best administrative officers in the service. He is well known as a military tactician, having served on various military boards of revision of army regulations and tactics. He is a son of President Lincoln's postmaster general and is a personal friend of President McKinley.

General Lawton's appointment as brigadier general in the regular army has been generally expected. It is to be given as a reward for his gallant service in the Santiago campaign, as well as his splendid work in the Philippines. His appointment at the present time, makes him a possible commanding general of the army after the retirement of General Miles. General MacArthur is booked for the brigadier generalship to become vacant by the retirement of General Anderson in January next.

SHOT BY ROBBERS.

Two Men Killed and Two Wounded in a Kansas Town.

Atchison, Kan., Oct. 23.—Two robbers Saturday night shot and killed one man and wounded another in a store at Doniphan, which they later robbed and Sunday ambushed and shot and killed a policeman and wounded another man, both members of a posse pursuing them. The robbers are surrounded six miles north of Atchison and an attempt will be made to arrest them.

The dead are:

John Brown of Doniphan.

Robert Dickerson Atchison.

Charles Kuehs of Doniphan and James Hayes of Atchison were wounded.

The robbers entered the store of Kuehs at Doniphan at 8 o'clock Saturday night and at the point of revolvers ordered a number of men present to hold up their hands. The order was obeyed quickly and one of the robbers started for the money drawer.

Kuehs and a man named Brown made a move to resist. Two pistols in the hands of the robbers cracked instantly. Brown fell dead where he stood and Kuehs winced from a wound in the arm. This was the signal to flee and the store was cleared in an instant, while the robbers hurriedly emptied the till and made off.

A party made up of Atchison and Doniphan men, heavily armed, started out in search of the robbers and six miles north of Atchison they came upon the robbers unawares, the latter firing upon them from ambush.

Robert Dickerson, an Atchison policeman, was shot and killed at the first volley, and before a successful rally could be made by the pursuers, James Hayes fell with a bullet in his arm.

The train will make the run from College to San Antonio November 3, and A. & M. day at the fair will be November 4. Those who desire to attend the fair should not miss this splendid opportunity, giving a round trip excursion at a very low rate.

ROW WITH MEXICANS

Trouble Between Mexican Guards and Cowboys Resumed.

FIVE MEN KILLED.

Four Are Mexicans and One an American—One Mexican Is Seriously Wounded and an American Shot in the Leg.

Benson, A. T., Oct. 23.—War between Americans and Mexicans has broken out again at Naco, A. T., with disastrous results. Naco lies partly in Mexico and partly in the United States and has a mixed population. Bad blood has existed between the Americans and Mexican officials since the recent disturbance, wherein a party of cowboys rescued one of their number from the jail across the border.

A dispatch from Bisbee says:

Sunday afternoon just as a baseball excursion from Bisbee was about to leave Naco, Mex., a fight started between Mexican guards and American cowboys and as a result four Mexican guards were killed and one seriously wounded.

An American named Ryan was instantly killed and a Bisbee miner was shot through the leg.

The fight resulted from a row on the Mexican side of the line between Americans and Mexicans.

The guards attempted to arrest the Americans, who retreated toward the line. Just before they reached the line the guards opened fire, which was promptly returned.

A lively battle occurred, lasting fully fifteen minutes. Over fifty shots were exchanged. Cowboys from this side rushed to the aid of their friends and opened fire across the line.

Dan Burgess, a bystander, was shot in the leg and Ryan, a freighter, was killed by bullets.

Montgomery, who was with Ryan, is missing. One cowboy was arrested and jailed on the Mexican side of the line. Excitement is intense and a posse is forming to rescue him.

CONFESS MURDERS.

A Convict Tells of His Crimes to the Warden at Stillwater.

Stillwater, Minn., Oct. 23.—J. C. McBryde, a convict at the prison, serving a sentence of three years for an assault, has made a remarkable confession showing him to be one of the most high-handed murderers in the country. His confession was made to Warden Wolfer, in a letter in which he related the murder of two officers, Joseph Grant and John McNutt, at Geneva, Ill., on Aug. 29, 1886; the murder of Julia Buckmire, at Geneva; a postoffice robbery and the murder of the marshal of Ossawatimie, Kas.; the burglary of a hardware store and the shooting of a policeman at Guide Rock, Neb., and many burglaries and highway robberies.

After receiving the letter and calling McBryde into his office for more explicit story of his crimes, Warden Wolfer communicated with the authorities at Geneva and elsewhere. He learned that the crimes were committed but has received no additional information. McBryde is now 33 years old and says he has followed the life of a robber and murderer since he was 18 years old. While relating the story of his crimes he gave all the details in a matter of fact manner, and evidently felt relieved. He claims to have confessed because his conscience bothered him, and says he is anxious to be punished for his many crimes.

Negro Soldiers Arrested.

Globe, Ariz., Oct. 23.—The 13 negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, accused of beating by clubs four Tonto Indians on the night of Oct. 13, at San Carlos Indian agency, had a preliminary hearing Saturday, before United States Commissioner Charles Martin, who held the defendants under $500 bail to appear before the United States grand jury. The prisoners were taken to Florence, where the second district meets Nov. 20. The Indian policeman, whose skull was fractured by a blow dealt by George Young, is still in a precarious condition. There is no excitement at San Carlos, and proceedings indicating punishment of the offenders will have a salutary effect.

Reward for Blue.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 23.—The people of Marion, S. C., the home of Lieutenant Victor Blue, will present that gallant young officer with a silver loving cup. Lieutenant Blue is now at Marion on his honeymoon. The medal is for gallantry as a scout in Cuba, when he located the Spanish fleet in Santiago harbor and made a map of their anchorage.

Blizzard Victims.

Minneapolis, Oct. 23.—A special from Great Falls, Mont., says nine men perished in the recent blizzard. Five bodies have been recovered and it is probable that this is not half the list. The last body found was that of H. Herold, a sheep herder. The sheep had eaten off his beard, clothing and part of his boots.

Hon. John K. Pollard Dead.

Cincinnati, Oct. 23.—At Carthage, 12 miles north of here, Hon. John K. Pollard, United States consul at Monterey, Mexico, died at 11 o'clock Sunday night. He will be buried at Mansfield, O.

THE MONTANA SNOWS.

Twenty Lives Believed Lost and Twenty Thousand Sheep Have Perished.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 23.—The northern part of the state is digging itself out of the snow. For four or five days last week snow came down almost unceasingly. At the town of Choteau, county seat of Teton county, it was 10 or 13 feet deep in drifts and at least three feet deep on the level. Old timers have agreed that nothing like this fall of snow has been seen in October for 20 years.

Z. T. Burton, president of the Burton Land company, who has arrived here, from the blizzard swept district, says that the bodies of eight sheep herders have already been found in Teton county and 15 other who are missing have been given up for lost. He says the loss of life will exceed 20 persons in Teton county and that 20,000 sheep perished in the storm.

FREIGHT CAR FAMINE.

Railroads Cannot Near Supply the Demand and Coal Has Advanced.

Atlanta, Oct. 23.—A scarcity of cars with which railroads have been contending for some time, is becoming serious in this section. The coal mines cannot get enough cars by half and the consumers cannot get more than barely enough to keep the mills and factories running. Coal has made a great advance in price and the car famine helps to keep the market up.

There are more coal cars in service than ever before but the demand for coal is extraordinary. Iron furnaces and coke ovens and other industries in the Birmingham district consume all the Alabama coal so that the consumers have to rely on Georgia and Tennessee. All railroads are hauling more freight than ever before and they require more fuel than in previous years.

FIGHT WITH NATIVES.

American Troops Rout the Filipinos Out of Their Trenches.

Manila, Oct. 23.—Captain Guy Howard, assistant quartermaster and quartermaster of volunteers, was killed Sunday near Arayat while on a launch on the Rio Grande river by concealed insurgents. His clerk, a civilian, and a native were wounded.

A scouting detachment of 368 volunteers encountered the insurgents southwest of Santa Rita, scattering them, killing 6 and capturing 8 prisoners and 10 rifles. No casualties.

General Lawton is operating from San Isidro. Forwarding supplies to that point continues, attended with some difficulty on account of lack of transportation, which will be supplied soon.

Insurgents in southern Luzon have attacked Calamba. They were driven off with no casualties. General Kline commanding at Calamba vigorously attacked the insurgent forces concentrating on the frontier, routed them from their trenches and pursued them three miles. His casualties were one private killed and one corporal and three privates wounded. Enemies loss unknown.

Wedded Beside a Deathbed.

Columbus, Miss., Oct. 23.—Joseph Hirschman, one of the oldest and wealthiest Jewish merchants of this city, died here after a comparatively brief illness. The marriage of Mr. Hirschman's young daughter, Fannie, to Louis L. Lee, a prominent young business man of Memphis, had been announced to occur at the Temple B'nai Israel in a few days, but when the physicians told Mr. Hirschman that he was dying he expressed a wish to see his daughter married before the end came, and in the presence of the dying man the young people were wedded, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Joseph Herz. The last words uttered by the dying man were a blessing upon his daughter and her husband.

Aged Sixty and Cut Jaw Teeth.

Pekin, Ill., Oct. 23.—The physicians of this city have been appraised of a circumstance which they say was never before known in the history of man. William Kemper of Henderson county was visiting his brother in Pekin, and he relates an experience which is indeed surprising. He is 60 years old and only recently cut an entirely new set of jaw teeth. His jaws pained him for several weeks, and finally his teeth began to drop out, but new ones took their places, and now he has a new set of jaw teeth complete. He says the pain was similar to that when a little child is losing its baby teeth and new ones come in.

Well Known Veteran Dead.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Major Charles A. Dibble, a prominent member of the Chicago bar who was well known on account of his connection with the Grand Army Memorial association of this city, is dead of pneumonia. Major Dibble was for years president of the Sons of New York. He was also president of the Union Veterans' association of Chicago, and until a few years ago was commander of Grant Post No. 28. Major Dibble was well known to the many Grand Army posts of Chicago.

Revolution Becoming General.

Carthage, Colombia, Oct. 23.—News received here shows the revolution to be general. Insurgents have taken the river steamers and armed them and burned the railroad bridges. The government is arming and dispatching river steamers with troops. The government commissioners have arrived here.

Lord Minister to Argentina.

Washington, Oct. 23.—William P. Lord of Oregon, has been appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Argentina.

NAVAL ADVANCEMENT.

Many Changes Since the Last List Went to the Senate.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Considerable interest is being taken by naval officers in the arrangement of the nominations of officers for advancement for extraordinary heroism during the war with Spain, which the president proposes to submit to the senate when congress is session. It is in order to prevent the stepping over of Rear Admirals McNair and Howell, the nominations of Rear Admirals Sampson and Schley will have to be reduced two numbers each.

Rear Admiral Philip, now in command of the New York navy yard, who was nominated for advancement by five numbers so as to take rank after Rear Admiral Watson, would now, in case of the confirmation of the nomination, jump that officer.

Captain Evans and Captain Taylor will doubtless be advanced the same as their nominations last year called for, but the passage of the naval personnel law and the amalgamation of the line and engineer corps will greatly affect the promotion of other officers who will be nominated for advancement.

Thus Captain Cook, who commanded the armored cruiser Brooklyn in the battle of Santiago, would have taken rank next after Captain Sterling, had his nomination been confirmed. Instead, if nominated again for advancement by five numbers, he will be placed next after Captain Coghlan, or two numbers below the number he would have held. The change is due to the fact that Capt. Allen and Melville, former engineer officers, have been given numbers just above Captain Cook.

Had the nomination of Captain Sigbee been confirmed he would have been placed next after Captain Lindlow. Should the president nominate him for advancement he will be placed next after Captain Chester.

Captain Chadwick, commanding the New York, will also lose three numbers and Captain Clark, who commanded the battleship Oregon on her famous run around the horn and in the battle with Cervera's fleet will have been driven down two pegs, so that his real advancement in case of renomination for advancement by six numbers will be only four numbers.

Rear Admiral O'Neil has published an interesting table showing what may be expected of the latest types of naval guns when attacking both Harveyized and Krupp armor. Incidentally it furnishes a valuable lesson as to the relative merits of the two-face hardening process. The new 3, 4 and 5-inch guns will each be 50 calibers in length, the 8-inch 45 calibers and the 10 and 12-inch 40 calibers.

Orders have been given to civil engineer H. R. Stanford to proceed to Manila and prepare plans for the establishment of a coal station on the site of the old station occupied by the Spaniards just inside of Sangley point, on Manila bay. Beyond the establishment of a coal station, no other naval depot will be located in the Philippines until the insurrection is at an end.

Mexican Land Commission.

San Antonio, Oct. 23.—H. Hart, a prominent real estate man of this city, accompanied by W. F. Olsen, a Chicago capitalist, has arrived here from the City of Mexico, where they secured from the Mexican government a concession of 1,000,000 acres of valuable land fronting on the Gulf of Mexico, and lying in the state of Tamaulipas. The land is said to be rich in precious minerals and valuable timbers, besides grazing and agricultural lands, all of which it is proposed to develop. A line of schooners will be established with the principal gulf port.

Missouri Families at War.

Maryville, Mo., Oct. 23.—A feud has long existed between the Wells and Cook families, of near Guilford. Walter Wells gave a dance at his house, which George and Ot Cook attended without invitation. Wells ordered them to go away and they demurred. In the fight that ensued both Ot and George Cook and an unknown young man were so badly cut by Wells that doctors from both Barnard and Guilford were called to dress their wounds. The Cooks declare that when they get well they will renew the trouble.

Four Smallpox Deaths.

Bastrop, Tex., Oct. 23.—Dr. William M. Cunningham was here from the smallpox camp and reported that out of the 10 persons in camp eight had the disease, four of whom had died, and the remaining two were vaccinated and as yet have escaped entirely.

No Alarm Felt.

Bonham, Tex., Oct. 23.—The smallpox situation in the southern part of the county is such that no alarm is felt over the affair. The exposed parties have been detained in a detention camp and no new cases have developed.

Iowa Volunteers Arrive.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—The United States transport Senator, has arrived from Manila with the Iowa volunteers on board. The trip was uneventful. She just missed the typhoon encountered by the Empress of India.
